

03. What are some of the risk factors for colorectal cancer?

Studies show that the following risk factors may increase a person's chances of developing colorectal cancer: age, polyps, diet, personal history, family history, and ulcerative colitis.